

Standard.

THE FLOWERS COLLECTION
MARCH 23, 1871

No. 4.

NING, FEBRUARY 2, 1870.

in Canton.

The Tartar portions of us as singular is their dress with a broad black sole. It gives a street looking in mourning, at quarter I came upon the Tartars. These are Chinese, Tartars are almost entirely military service. Their portions are everywhere among the population, all busy, the Chinese, methodically, beautify entire streets and cities, and which will last forever. Then I pass containing nothing but silk hats, others clothing, containing, the next perhaps for straw hats, two work, silver threads, stockings, &c., &c., commodity in appropriate street. Not remarkable are the streets appropriate to the business of making coffin, or workshops filled with lumber on the side of piles with oil and paint on the walls were industriously engaged making these heavy, cumbersome.

days since a colored man, while walking from an area in the rear of houses at Covington, Ky., turned over which had contained opium. He carried being sir, some of the opium in the hands of the armfuls.

the controversy is now as to the qualities of the article, waiting to test the matter, applied a red match to a portion of the saturated, whereupon he is supposed to have instantaneously and effectively con-to the affirmative of the mooted question, before he could say Jack Robinson, other man still ignited, the fire to the parent source, the barrel, exploded with a tremendous bang, the pieces thereof over a three story building adjoining, a portion of the window of a dwelling in it, and another portion through Hawe's window, demolishing it, and throwing wood, glass, etc., gentleman's face, very much to his satisfaction, as he was quietly standing by perfectly innocent and unsuspecting mind. The negro, who escaped, said he wouldn't try any experiments in the future.

sets producing nothing.

A slenderly cheerful. But their peculiar wares are used to tempt purchasers in manner. And there, too, ring and blinding with prices, qualities of the rough cutlins were good to family, and were the utilities for domestic uses indeed, among the Chiley are so. Nothing is or a person, ambitious to provide his coffin, fancy, long in advance are frequently given by as a holiday present, most worthy.

to send his venerable birthday present, would ed as an evidence of very good, but in China such a gift.

The gratified parent received a beaming gift with glad-it instantaneously in his best until it is wished for its speculates general use of it as a bling clothing, or as a deposilored rice that is to be for daily bread.—Letter from Con-

Public Sentiment.

some angels into the world to refresh the sorrow of the dead, and the sorrow of the disabled souls. We we should bring joy to the weary and ease, and when he is such a thing in the order of things, as com-begin to break out from the forms at the door of sighs by little begin to melt into refreshment; this is glory to employment fit for the bright-

I have seen the sun kiss the which was bound up with the

and the colder breath of and melt with joy, and run and the flies rise again graves in the walls, and the air to tell that joy-the mother of creatures kind, and sing praises is the heart of a sorrow, the despair, from and chains of sor-

He blesses them, and for to be miserable his life, but the com-and with no music be-thanksgiving songs of united rejoicings, of and thankful persons,

Suggards.

had three sons, all of much that he did not should name to be King in the day of his death appealed them to his bedside, and children, I have something on my which I wish to tell you; whatever the basket, he shall be King when dead.

father, the kingdom belongs to the eldest son; for I am so fat,

I do sleep and the tears in my eyes, so that I cannot close

I yet go to sleep without wiping them the Kingdom belongs to me," cried the son: "but I am so fat that when by the fire to warm myself, I allow my to search before I will draw away my the third son said, "The kingdom is father, for I am so fat that when

and even half I the

round my neck, and any one should

me a sharp sword to cut it with, I

id suffer myself to be swing off before the trouble to cut the rope."

as the Father heard this he said

youngest Son, "You have shown the laud of all; and you shall be

the third son said,

"The kingdom is

fat, for I am so fat that when

and even half I the

round my neck, and any one should

me a sharp sword to cut it with, I

id suffer myself to be swing off before

the trouble to cut the rope."

as the Father heard this he said

youngest Son, "You have shown

the laud of all; and you shall be

the third son said,

"The kingdom is

fat, for I am so fat that when

and even half I the

round my neck, and any one should

me a sharp sword to cut it with, I

id suffer myself to be swing off before

the trouble to cut the rope."

as the Father heard this he said

youngest Son, "You have shown

the laud of all; and you shall be

the third son said,

"The kingdom is

fat, for I am so fat that when

and even half I the

round my neck, and any one should

me a sharp sword to cut it with, I

id suffer myself to be swing off before

the trouble to cut the rope."

as the Father heard this he said

youngest Son, "You have shown

the laud of all; and you shall be

the third son said,

"The kingdom is

fat, for I am so fat that when

and even half I the

round my neck, and any one should

me a sharp sword to cut it with, I

id suffer myself to be swing off before

the trouble to cut the rope."

as the Father heard this he said

youngest Son, "You have shown

the laud of all; and you shall be

the third son said,

"The kingdom is

fat, for I am so fat that when

and even half I the

round my neck, and any one should

me a sharp sword to cut it with, I

id suffer myself to be swing off before

the trouble to cut the rope."

as the Father heard this he said

youngest Son, "You have shown

the laud of all; and you shall be

the third son said,

"The kingdom is

fat, for I am so fat that when

and even half I the

round my neck, and any one should

me a sharp sword to cut it with, I

id suffer myself to be swing off before

the trouble to cut the rope."

as the Father heard this he said

youngest Son, "You have shown

the laud of all; and you shall be

the third son said,

"The kingdom is

fat, for I am so fat that when

and even half I the

round my neck, and any one should

me a sharp sword to cut it with, I

id suffer myself to be swing off before

the trouble to cut the rope."

as the Father heard this he said

youngest Son, "You have shown

the laud of all; and you shall be

the third son said,

"The kingdom is

fat, for I am so fat that when

and even half I the

round my neck, and any one should

me a sharp sword to cut it with, I

id suffer myself to be swing off before

the trouble to cut the rope."

as the Father heard this he said

youngest Son, "You have shown

the laud of all; and you shall be

the third son said,

"The kingdom is

fat, for I am so fat that when

and even half I the

round my neck, and any one should

me a sharp sword to cut it with, I

id suffer myself to be swing off before

the trouble to cut the rope."

as the Father heard this he said

youngest Son, "You have shown

the laud of all; and you shall be

the third son said,

"The kingdom is

&lt;p